Notification of Modification / Update Exemption Determination

November 22, 2022

Viktoria Cologna
viktoriacologna@fas.harvard.edu

Protocol Title: International study on trust in science and science-relate populism: a global assessment
Principal Investigator: Viktoria Cologna
Protocol #: IRB22-1046
Submission #: MOD22-1046-01
Funding Source: Swiss National Science Foundation;
IRB Review Date: 11/22/2022
IRB Effective Date: 11/22/2022
IRB Review Type: Exempt

This Modification / Update continues to meet the criteria for exemption per the regulations found at 45 CFR 46.104(d) (2). As such, additional IRB review is not required. For international research, the Principal Investigator is required to comply with any applicable local laws, legislation, regulations, and/or policies. Additionally, if local IRB/ethics review is required, it must be obtained before any human subjects research activities are conducted in the field. If assistance with applicable local requirements is needed, please contact the Harvard University-Area IRB office.

This approval is for the revision to the protocol to establish this is a global study that will target specific locations that vary. The researcher also provided the flow of data between collaborators and through the distribution of the survey through a marketing firm. The protocol was updated with this information.

The documents that were finalized for this submission may be accessed through the IRB electronic submission management system at the following link: IRB22-1046

The determination that your research is exempt does not expire, and you will not file annual renewals. If changes to the research are proposed that would alter the IRB's original exemption determination, they should be submitted in ESTR by using the Modify Study button. If unsure, contact the Harvard University-Area IRB office.
