DeepL
Subscribe to DeepL Pro to edit this document.
Visit www.DeepL.com/pro for more information.

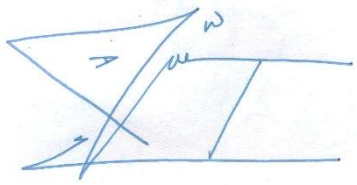

A. For the course lecturer

Background	Indicators	Interview results
	Educational profile	Master's degree from UNJ Jakarta
	Teaching experience	3 years
	Books published	None
	Publications by lecturers	Analysis of al-Qary al-Araby Teaching Materials 2021
	Specialist competence certificates for lecturers	None
Teaching principles adopted	Indicators	Interview results
	Lecturers' teaching styles and principles	Relaxed, yet punctual and strict about adhering to lecture regulations, particularly regarding student attendance
	Ability to formulate and deliver learning outcomes in each session	Good and in line with the Course Syllabus
	Specialised training for lecturers (PEKERTI)	Completed
Learning objectives for academic writing	Indicators	Interview results
	Assignment of structured tasks in the form of papers	Always assigned in every lecture
	Students' academic writing in Indonesian and Arabic	The 'Kitabah' course is geared towards thesis writing
	Are the students under my supervision able to write Arabic sentences well?	On average, students' handwriting skills in Arabic are quite good. Therefore, more handwriting practice is needed. Their computer typing skills are already good.

Signature of the lecturer in charge

Interviewed on 15 April 2021

(Ahmad Rizki Nugrahawan, M.Pd)