

AB

Figure S1. PCoA plots representing the beta diversity of the nasal microbiota of the piglets derived from vaccinated (green) and control sows (orange). Jaccard distance matrix is represented in the left (A) and unweighted Unifrac index on the right (B). Each sample is colored based on the biological sow, and its size is proportional to the Simpson index (alpha diversity).