

Supplementary Fig. 1. Box plots proving that analysis with FibroSoft is quantifying tissue classification correctly in a user-independent as well as staining-independent way (n=12 mice/group).

Picosirius red

Masson's trichrome

Supplementary Fig. 2. Quantification and classification steps from original image, image with background removed, classified healthy tissue and classified fibrotic tissue for two different cryosections in order to show its performance visually.

