

This is full-length gels and blots, and the gels/blots cropped from different parts of same gel and same exposures