

Graphical abstract

Polyurea membrane exhibited excellent adsorption for anionic dye with high removal efficiency, suggesting application for the decontamination of dye wastewater.

