

Supplementary Material Figure 5. Clinical impact curve of the model. The red curve indicates the number of people who are classified as positive; the blue curve represents the number of true positives at each threshold probability