

Family/social background

Conflicts in social life

Relation to colleagues

Friendships

Partnership

Family situation

Medical and treatment history

Measures to return to working life on one's own initiative

Experience with authorities (e.g. labor office)

Experience with social security institutions

Treatment history

Coping strategies/measures

Medical history

Flow of information regarding possible assistance

Medication therapy

Own implementation of what has been learned in the inpatient setting in everyday life

Hospital stays

Experience with services for participation in working life (LTA)

(furtehr) outpatient treatment

(duration until) start of treatment

Inside the working environment

Outside the working environment

Group offers

Individual offers

Duration of illness

Incapacity for work phase

Dealing with one's own illness

Communicating one's own illness

Trigger/symptom reinforcing factors

Symptomatology

Initial manifestation/first diagnosis