

Data availability

The data contained in the article originate from a database constructed by the author, based on the respondents' answers. All responses are anonymized and have been reviewed by an ethics committee and the Plataforma Brasil, which regulate the conduct of studies involving human subjects in the country.