

Table 3 Usefulness of the received information (n=1513)

Question	%
About the information received in your results being useful for your life, do you consider that...	Agree %	Neutral %	Disagree %
You would share your result with family members in case of identification of risk for a genetic disease	91.01%	6.61%	2.38%
You would recommend others to take the test	86.19%	10.84%	2.97%
The Global Ancestry result corresponds to the ancestry you know from your family	60.21%	27.96%	11.83%
You feel secure about the privacy of your data	59.09%	31.99%	8.92%
It was possible to accurately determine your biogeographical ancestry	53.21%	36.62%	10.18%
The Global Ancestry result was important for your self-perception of ethnic/racial identity	52.94%	25.18%	21.88%
You will invest more in health	51.88%	34.90%	13.22%
The acquired information was able to direct which are the best health behaviors to be adopted	51.22%	29.35%	19.43%
It would be important to consult a healthcare professional	51.09%	35.29%	13.62%
You began to understand better about genetics	50.56%	34.24%	15.20%
You understood which are the best medications for you	39.46%	38.27%	22.27%
The results led to changes in habits and investments in quality of life and health	37.81%	37.21%	24.98%
You managed to get to know and expand your relationship with other relatives	12.82%	26.97%	60.21%