

Ethical Clearance Certificate

The Research Ethics Committee at King Khalid University (HAPO-06-B-001) has reviewed and agreed on the project shown below:

Approval No.	ECM#2024-3195
Name of PI	Saleh Hamed J Alsulamy
Research title	Sustainability Assessment in Construction Projects Using Multi-Criteria Decision-Making and Artificial Intelligence
Approval date	30/12/2024
Expiry date	29/12/2025
Decision	Approved

Conditions of approval

- The conduction of research should be strictly in accordance with the approved proposal.
- The principal investigator must obtain the approval from related parties in order to conduct the research on the target group.
- The principal investigator must officially inform the Research ethics committee if any changes arise to the protocol and/or the target group of the research.
- Any amendments to the approved proposal require the submission and the approval from the Research Ethics Committee before implementation.
- The principal investigator must immediately notify the Research Ethics Committee in writing if the project is discontinued.

- The principal investigator must submit a monitoring report every 6 months and a final report at the end of the project. The final monitoring report should be submitted to the Research Ethics committee at KKU prior to the expiry date.
- In the event of any breach of bioethics rules approved by the National Committee of Bioethics (NCBE) and /or conducting any inadequate practice and /or any action that may adversely affect the participants, the principal investigator shall be liable for that. And the principal investigator must report the breach immediately to the Research Ethics Committee at KKU.

THE RESEARCH ETHICS COMMITTEE HAS THE RIGHT TO CANCEL THE ETHICAL APPROVAL IN CASE OF FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE ABOVE LISTED CONDITIONS.

Dr. Mohammad Y. Abodahmah

Chairperson of the Research Ethics Committee
King Khalid University
KSA

