

Table 3 Changes that occur(red) after the febrile seizure of their child according to the parents of children affected by febrile seizures (n=65)

Question	Value
Were there / will there be any general changes in the handling of your child? [n (%) of parents answering "yes"]	50 (77%)
Do you / will you take your child's temperature more often? [n (%) of parents answering "yes"]	46 (71%)
Do you / will you give your child medicine to lower his/her fever earlier? [n (%) of parents answering "yes"]	41 (63%)
At what temperature would you start giving your child medicine to lower his/her fever? [Median (Q25/Q75)]	38.2°C (38.0°C/38.5°C) 100.8°F (100.4°F/101.3°F)
Do you / will you see your paediatrician more often when your child has a fever? [n (%) of parents answering "yes"]	16 (25%)