

Questionnaire: Non-prescription acquisition of antibiotics in community pharmacies in Marib, Yemen

Section 1: Socio-demographic characteristics

1. Age (years):

.....

2. Gender:

- Male
- Female

3. Locality:

- Urban area
- Rural area

4. Residence status:

- Resident
- Displaced person

5. Level of education:

- Illiterate / can read and write
- Primary or preparatory school
- Secondary school
- University graduate or postgraduate

6. Occupation:

- Employed
- Unemployed

7. Monthly family income (Yemeni Rial):

- Low (<100,000)
- Medium (100,000–300,000)
- High (>300,000)

Section 2: Antibiotic acquisition

8. Did customer buy antibiotic with a prescription?

- Yes (with prescription)
- No (without prescription)

9. What was the main reason for purchasing the antibiotic?

- Fever, common cold, or cough
 - Dysentery / diarrhea / food poisoning
 - Upper respiratory tract infection
 - Abdominal/ other pain
 - Other reason
-

Section 3: Antibiotic use practices

10. What do you usually do with leftover antibiotics?

- I usually complete the full course
 - I keep it at home for future use
-

Section 4: Source of information

11. What source influenced your decision to purchase antibiotics without prescription?

- Pharmacist
 - Self-Knowledge/Previous personal experience
 - Family member
 - Friends or neighbors
-