You are invited to participate in a research study conducted for academic purposes. The purpose of this study is to examine the determinants of participation in indigenous handcraft traditions: evidence from rural households in Gondar zuria district, Ethiopia. Because some participants may not be able to read or write, the researcher will clearly explain the purpose, procedures, risks, and benefits of the study orally before participation. The findings of the study may be published in scientific journals, but no information that could identify you will be disclosed. This study is conducted solely for academic purposes; therefore, your honest and frank responses are essential for the reliability and success of the study. You are encouraged to answer all questions confidently, knowing that your responses will remain confidential and used only for research purposes.

Are you voluntarily participating in this interview?
